☛ Course Overview

Course page

This course is designed to aid students in enhancing their English language abilities, with specific emphasis on clear and intelligible pronunciation. Through participatory activities, students will sharpen their speaking and listening skills. They will be exposed to a variety of authentic materials, including TED talks and online videos, to analyze and practice their comprehension and speaking skills. Furthermore, students will use digital resources and AI technologies to enhance their language learning experience. In addition to practical language exercises, students will be introduced to some linguistic features of English pronunciation and will become familiarized with the International Phonetic Alphabet. The emphasis on stress and intonation in the English language will also be explored. Assignments will be provided to deepen students' understanding of pronunciation, and they will have the opportunity to apply their knowledge in a hands-on manner. Upon completion of the course, students will possess a comprehensive foundation in English pronunciation, equipping them with the skills necessary to become confident and competent English teachers in the 21st century.
